Membership in the Cooperative shall be evidenced by a membership certificate which shall be in such form and shall contain such provision as shall be determined by the Board. Such certificate shall be signed by the President and by the Secretary, or designated employee, of the Cooperative and the corporate seal shall be affixed thereto. No membership certificate shall be issued for less than the membership fee fixed by the Board, nor until such membership fee has been fully paid for. In case a certificate is lost, destroyed or mutilated a new certificate may be issued there for upon such uniform terms and indemnity to the Cooperative as the Board may pre-scribe.

SECTION 4. Joint Membership. A husband and wife may apply for a joint membership and, subject to their compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 1 of this Article, may be accepted for such membership. The term "member" as used in these By-laws shall be deemed to include a husband and wife holding a joint membership and any provisions relating to the rights and liabilities of membership shall apply equally with respect to the holders of a joint membership. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the effect of the hereinafter specified actions by or in respect of the holders of a joint membership shall be as follows: The presence at a meeting of either or both shall be regarded as the presence of one member and shall constitute a joint waiver of notice of the meeting;

- (a) The vote of either separately or both jointly shall constitute one joint vote;

SECTION 5. Conversion of Membership. (a) A membership may be converted to a joint membership upon the written request of the holder thereof and the agreement by such holder and his or her spouse to comply with Section 1(d) of this Article. Such transfer shall be made and recorded on the books of the Cooperative and such joint membership noted on the original certificate representing the membership so transferred.

(b) Upon the death of either spouse who is a party to the joint membership, such membership shall be held solely by the survivor, provided, however, that the estate of the deceased shall not be released from any debts due the Cooperative.

SECTION 6. Termination of Memberships. (a) Any member may withdraw from membership upon compliance with such uniform terms and conditions as the Board may prescribe. The Board may, by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of all the members of the Board, expel any member who fails to comply with any of the provisions of the Mississippi Electric Power Association Act of 1936 as amended or of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Cooperative or By-Laws or rules or regulations adopted by the Board from time to time, but only if such member shall have been given written notice by the Cooperative that such failure makes him liable to expulsion and such failure shall have continued for at least ten (10) days after such notice was given. Any expelled member may be reinstated by vote of the Board or by vote of the members at any annual or special meeting. The membership of a member who for a period of two (2) months after a cooperative service is available to him, has not purchased a cooperative service from the Cooperative, or of a member who has ceased to purchase a cooperative service from the Cooperative, may be cancelled by resolution of the Board. (b) Upon the withdrawal, death, cessation of existence or expulsion of a member, the membership of such member shall thereupon terminate, and the membership certificate of such member shall be surrendered forthwith to the Cooperative. Termination of membership in any manner shall not release a member or his estate from any debts due the Cooperative and shall not terminate the membership value. In case of withdrawal or termination of membership in any manner, the Cooperative shall repay to the member the amount of the membership fee paid by him provided, however, that the Cooperative shall deduct from the value of the membership the amount of any debts or obligations owed by the member to the Cooperative. Inactive (not receiving a cooperative service) members in good standing are not active members, and shall not have the right to vote in any election or otherwise exercise the rights of active members.

SECTION 7. Service to Non-Members. The Cooperative shall render a cooperative service to its members only; provided, however, that should the Cooperative acquire any facilities dedicated or devoted to the public use it may, for the purpose of continuing service and avoiding hardship and to an extent which together with all other governmental agencies and political sub-divisions served by the Cooperative on a non-member basis shall not exceed forty-nine percent (49%) of the total number of persons served by the Cooperative, continue to serve the persons served directly from such facilities at the time of such acquisition without requiring that such persons become members; and provided, further that such non-members shall have the right to become members upon non-discriminatory terms.

SECTION 8. Purchase of Electric Energy. Each member shall, as soon as electric energy shall be available, purchase from the Cooperative all electric energy purchased for use on the premises specified in his application for membership, and shall pay therefor at rates which shall from time to time be fixed by the Board. Production or use of electric energy on such premises, regardless of the source thereof, by means of facilities which shall be inter-connected with Cooperative facilities, shall be subject to appropriate regulations as shall be fixed from time to time by the Cooperative and TVA. It is expressly understood that amount paid for electric energy in excess of the cost of service are furnished by members as capital and each member shall be credited with the capital so furnished as provided in ARTICLE VIII Disposition of Property in these By-laws. The Federal Agency TVA does not allow the Cooperative through the Power Contract to return any capitol to members except through rate reductions. Each member shall pay to the Cooperative such minimum amount regardless of the amount of electric energy consumed, as shall be fixed by the Board from time to time. Each member shall also pay all amounts owed by him to the Cooperative as and when the same shall become due and payable.

SECTION 9. Security Deposits. When the membership fee or special deposits as may be required with respect to a cooperative service to members or non-members does not, in the judgment of the General Manager of the Association, constitute sufficient security for the payment of bills for cooperative services, the General Manager may require such customer to post a deposit with the Cooperative in an amount deemed sufficient to secure payment.

SECTION 10. Contributions to Capital. All amounts received and receivable from the furnishing of Cooperative Services to members and non-members in excess of operating cost and expenses properly chargeable against the furnishing of Cooperative Services are, at the moment of receipt by the Cooperative, received with the understanding that such amounts are furnished by the members and non-members as capital. Capital contributed by members and non-members of each Cooperative Service shall be used only for capital purposes including, without limitation, new system construction, the retirement of system indebtedness at or prior to maturity, and working capital adequate for all purposes including facilitation of general rate reductions. The Cooperative shall pay capital credits from electric margins per the Power Contract with TVA to reduce electric rates as low as practical for all classes of electric usage.

The Cooperative shall maintain such books and records as will enable it at any time to compute, upon reasonable notice, the amount of capital contributed during any given period of each of its members and non-members for each Cooperative Service. The Board shall make all capital credit decisions.

SECTION 11. Non-liability for Debts of the Cooperative. The private property of the members of the Cooperative shall be exempt from execution for the debts of the Cooperative and no member shall be individually liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the Cooperative.

SECTION 12. Wiring. Service to any persons may, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, be conditioned upon such person furnishing to the Cooperative the certificate of a reputable inspector stating that the wiring of the premises served, or to be served complies with all local regulations and is in accordance with the latest rules and regulations of the National Electrical Code of the National Board of Fire Underwriters for the installing of electric wire, apparatus, and appliances, and is in accordance with the wiring specifications adopted by the Board of Directors of the Cooperative. The requirement or waiver of such certificate, however, or the supplying of service on the basis thereof, shall not subject the Cooperative to liability to any member or other person for any damages or injuries sustained by reason of defects existing in the wiring of such premises.

SECTION 13. Easements for Cooperative's Lines. Each member of the Cooperative shall, without charge to the Cooperative, grant to the Cooperative (a) easements for the construction, operation and maintenance of poles, transmission and distribution lines, fiber lines, and other materials and equipment of the Cooperative ("Cooperative's Facilities) over, under and through land owned or controlled by the member, (b) the right to use and/or allow others to use the easements and Cooperative's Facilities thereon for the provision of cable tv, telephone and/or broadband services, and (c) the right to access and duly authorize third parties to access the easements to maintain the easements and the lines and other equipment thereon in such condition as may be necessary or desirable, including, without limitation, the right to cut trees, trim trees, apply herbicides for vegetation management, and remove or trim other obstacles, including trees, on or adjacent to the easements which may endanger the lines or other equipment on the easements or the public. The granting by a member of such easements and rights to the Cooperative shall be effective upon the member's admission to membership in the Cooperative, and the granting of such easements and rights shall be effective and enforceable even in the absence of a separate written easement agreement executed by the member. The member shall, nevertheless, execute a separate written easement agreement for recording purposes if requested by the Cooperative to do so.

SECTION 14. Protection of Members Privacy Member's names, addresses and other personal information is protected by state and federal law.

SECTION 15. Arbitration of Member Disputes, Claims or Controversies. Any and all Member disputes, claims or controversies arising from or related in any way to the Cooperative's provision of electricity or other cooperative services, or in its furnishing of any goods, or in the conduct of its operations, other than disputes or claims relating to the payment for electrical energy and/or payment for other cooperative services provided by the Cooperative or rates and service practices regulated by TVA, that are not resolved by agreement of the parties or resolved through TVA's Complaint Resolution Process, shall, at the request of either party, be resolved by binding arbitration. In the event the arbitration involves a sum in excess of $100,000.00, there shall be three (3) arbitrators, one picked by each party and a third selected by the two (2) arbitrators selected by the parties. In the event the dispute involves less than $100,000.00, there shall be one

(1) arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator, the determination shall be made by the Court having jurisdiction in Prentiss County, Mississippi. The arbitration shall take place in Prentiss County, Mississippi, or as close to this location as possible, under and pursuant to the rules contained in the latest update of Title 11 Chapter 15 of the Mississippi Statutes. The determination of any dispute in arbitration shall be governed by the laws of the State of Mississippi. The cost of the arbitrators and the filing fees shall be shared equally by the parties. All disputes, claims or controversies between the parties must be arbitrated individually, and not through a Class Action Arbitration. Each member of the Cooperative, by virtue of their membership, agrees to arbitrate any and all disputes, claims or controversies according to these bylaws and the regulations and policies prescribed by the Board of Directors. This agreement to arbitrate all disputes, claims or controversies shall survive any withdrawal from or termination of a member's membership in the Cooperative.

ARTICLE II, MEETING OF MEMBERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of members shall be held on the third Saturday of August of each year, or at such other time, and at any place within the service area of the Cooperative, as shall be designated by the Board of Directors and specified in the notice of meeting, for the purpose of passing upon reports covering the previous fiscal year and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting, PROVIDED, that in the event the Board sets a different date for the meeting, said date shall not be more than thirty (30) days prior or subsequent to the day otherwise established in this Section. The President of the Board, or his nominee, shall preside at and conduct the meeting. If, at any annual meeting or adjournment thereof, the President, or his nominee, determines in his judgment that it is necessary in the best interest of the Cooperative and its members to adjourn or reset the meeting to another time, date and place, he shall have the power, discretion and authority so to act. Failure to have a quorum at the annual meeting time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the Cooperative, nor shall it affect the election of Directors to be held after the annual meeting date by mail out ballot.

SECTION 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called by resolution of the Board of Directors, by any seven (7) directors, by the President, or upon written petition signed by at least twenty (20%) of all members. Said petition shall be on a form satisfactory to the Cooperative. Each person signing such petition shall affix the date of the signature, show the address and account number of the person signing the petition. In no event shall a special meeting be called unless the petitions are completed and presented to the Cooperative within ninety (90) days from and after the date of the first signature on said petition. When special meetings are called in such manner, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to cause notice of such meeting to be given as hereinafter provided. Such a meeting shall be held at such place within the service area of the Cooperative and on such date, not sooner than sixty (60) days after the call of such meeting is made by said petition, and beginning at such hour as shall be designated by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3. Notice of Member's Meetings. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of any member meeting and, in the case a special meeting or an annual meeting at which business requiring special notices to be transacted, the purpose or purposes for which the special meeting is called, shall be delivered to each member not less than thirty (30) days before the date of the meeting, by any reasonable means, by or at the direction of the Secretary. Reasonable means of providing such notice shall be the United States mail, personal delivery, electronic mail or messaging and/or by advertising in the local newspapers. If the cooperative creates an affiliate to provide broadband under HB366 Mississippi Broadband Enabling Act the afore mentioned notice will be at least 90 day notice by separate mail. A mailed notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the Cooperative, with postage thereon prepaid. In case of a joint membership, notice given to either husband or wife shall be deemed as notice to both joint members. The failure of any member to receive notice of an annual or special meeting of the members, shall not invalidate any action which may be taken by the members at any such meeting, and the attendance in person, or by proxy, of a member at any annual or special meeting of the members shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting unless such attendance shall be for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business, or one or more items of business, on the ground that the meeting shall not have been lawfully called or convened. Any member attending any annual or special meeting for the purpose of making such objection shall notify the Secretary prior to or at the beginning of the meeting of his objection.

SECTION 4. Quorum. In order to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at each meeting of members of the Cooperative, there must be present either in person or by proxy, or both, at least ten percent (10%) of the Cooperative's members, except that, if less than a quorum is present at any meeting, the Board of Directors may adjourn the meeting to another time and date not less than sixty (60) days later and to any place within the service area of the Cooperative as shall be designated by the Board of Directors. In case of a joint membership, the presence at the meeting, either in person or by proxy of either husband or wife, or both, shall be regarded as the presence of one member. The President, or his nominee, shall ascertain whether or not a quorum is present, and such determination shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud or bad faith. The determination of the Board of Directors to adjourn or recess the meeting, shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud or bad faith, and no further valid or binding action may be taken unless and until a quorum is present. In the event any meeting is adjourned to a later date, the Secretary shall notify any absent members of the time, date, and place of such adjourned meeting by delivering notice thereof as provided in Article II, SECTION 3 herein. Failure to have a quorum at the appointed time for the annual members meeting shall not affect the election of directors to be held after the meeting by mail out ballot from those candidates qualifying by written petition.

SECTION 5. Voting. Each active (receiving a cooperative service) member shall be entitled to only one vote, regardless of the number of memberships the member may have in his or her name, upon each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of the members at which a quorum is present and only one ballot when voting for Board Member candidates. PROVIDED, that no member shall be entitled to vote unless said member shall have been an active (receiving a cooperative service) member of the Cooperative for at least thirty (30) days prior to the set date of the Annual Member's meeting. At all meetings of the members at which a quorum is present, all questions submitted to the members for determination and vote shall be decided by a vote of the majority of the active members voting thereon by proxy, or in person, except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation, or these By-laws. If a husband and wife hold a joint membership, they shall jointly be entitled to only one vote upon each matter submitted to a vote of the members. A remaining spouse may vote for a deceased member up to 12 months after the death then the membership must be transferred.

SECTION 6. Proxies. For the convenience of the members, and all meetings of the member's, a member may be considered present and may vote by proxy executed in writing by the member upon the form specified and provided to the member by the Cooperative, and no other designation or form shall be recognized or accepted. In the event a member executes two or more proxies for the same meeting or for any adjournment thereof, the proxy last filed shall revoke all others. If such proxies are filed on the same date and are held by different persons, none of them will be valid or recognized. Each proxy must be in writing, show the member's account number, be signed by the member, must name another member or the Board of Directors of the Cooperative to vote the proxy, and must be filed with the Secretary of the Cooperative in person, by United States mail or electronic mail addressed to the Secretary of the Cooperative, at the principal office of the Cooperative in Booneville, Mississippi. No proxy shall be voted by anyone other than a member of the Cooperative or the Board of Directors. No member shall vote as proxy for more than Five (5) members at any meeting of the members. Each proxy must be filed with the Secretary of the Cooperative at least eight days (that is 192 hours) prior to the scheduled starting time of the meeting at which it is to be voted. The date of the proxies receipt in the Cooperative's office shall be its filing date. The proxy must designate the particular meeting at which it is to be voted, and no proxy shall be voted at any meeting other than the one so designated, or any adjournment of such meeting. No proxy shall be valid after ninety (90) days from the date of its execution. If no member is designated on any proxy to vote the same or if the Board of Directors of the Cooperative is designated to vote the proxy, the proxy shall be voted by the Board of Directors, or its nominee. The presence of a member at a meeting of members shall not revoke a proxy theretofore executed by him, and such member shall not be entitled to vote at such meeting. A proxy may be revoked only, by the person who issued the proxy. The revocation must be in writing, signed by the member, dated, stating the account number of the member, and must be filed with the Secretary of the Cooperative at least eight days (that is 192 hours) prior to the scheduled starting time of the meeting at which the revoked proxy was to be voted. In the case of a joint membership, a proxy may be executed and may be revoked by either husband or wife.

It shall be the responsibility of the committee to establish or approve the manner of conducting member registration and any voting, to pass upon all questions that may arise with respect to the registration of members in person or by proxy, to validate and count all proxies, and other votes cast, to rule upon the effect of any proxy, or other vote irregularity or indecisively marked or cast, to rule upon all other questions that may arise relative to member voting. In the exercise of its responsibility, the committee shall have available to it the advice of counsel provided by the Cooperative. Each director must be a resident of the area he represents. Two members who reside within the city limits of Booneville, Mississippi and one member who resides within the city limits of Baldwyn, Mississippi shall be elected to membership on the Board of Directors. Upon determination that a board member is holding the office of director in violation of any of the foregoing provisions, the board shall remove such director from office provided, however, nothing contained in this section shall in any manner whatsoever effect the validity of any action taken at any meeting of the Board.

SECTION 5. Nomination. Any member of the Cooperative who meets the qualifications set forth in these bylaws may qualify by petition to become a candidate for Director. In any year that only one candidate qualifies in each area up for election the remaining Board members may vote to elect those candidates that qualified and save the cost of the mail out balloting for that year.

The completion of the annual election process confirms the desire of the Cooperative's members for the year. If the number of ballots returned to the CPA firm to be counted in the election of directors meets the annual member's meeting quorum requirement for the year, the election of directors will constitute and complete the annual member's meeting.

SECTION 7. Removal of Directors and Officers. Any member may bring charges of malfeasance, misconduct in office, disability, or other good cause against an officer or director by filing them in writing with the Secretary, together with a petition signed by twenty percent (20%) of the members, requesting the removal of the officer or director in question. The C.P.A. firm shall officially count the ballots and inform the Board of Directors of the results in writing. Each of the opposing sides may have one (1) witness to watch the count of the ballots. In the event any director is removed from office by said process, the Board of Directors shall convene by special meeting within ten (10) days of the date of said removal and shall elect a successor director from the same director area as was the director removed, to serve the unexpired portion of the removed director's term up to and until the next annual director election. At the next annual director election the balance of the unexpired portion of the removed director's term, shall be filled by the regular nomination and election process set forth in this article for a regular election.

SECTION 8. Vacancies. The Association shall have the power to purchase insurance covering such liability and expenses.

SECTION 10. Compensation. Board members shall not receive any compensation for their services as Directors but shall be entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties. Directors may, by resolution of the Board, be granted a reasonable per diem allowance by the Board in lieu of detailed accounting for such expenses.

SECTION 11. Policies, Rules and Regulations. The Board of Directors shall have the power to make and adopt such Policies, Rules and Regulations, not inconsistent with law, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Cooperative or these By-Laws, as it may deem advisable for the management, administration and regulation of the business and affairs of the Cooperative.

SECTION 12. Accounting System and Reports. The accounts of the Cooperative shall be established and maintained in such form, subject to any contractual obligations of the Cooperative, as the Board of Directors may prescribe. The Board of Directors shall also, within a reasonable time after the close of each fiscal year, cause to be made by a Certified Public Accountant a full and complete audit of the accounts, books and financial condition of the Cooperative as of the end of such fiscal year. A regular meeting of the board shall also be held monthly at such time and place within the area served by the Cooperative as designated by the board; provided, however, by resolution the board may change the date, time, or location of any regular board meeting. Such regular monthly meeting may be held without notice other than such resolution fixing the time and place thereof. Any member of the cooperative may address the board, unless in executive session, at any regular meeting regarding suggestions for better service, grievances or any other matter affecting the cooperative, provided that the member has at least fifteen (15) days in advance of the meeting executed a written request, in a form and manner prescribed by the cooperative. The President may limit the format and length of any presentation. The Board may defer any presentation by a member to the next scheduled Board meeting due to the time restraints.
